No: 5/2022

4th April 2022

Dean's Ordinance establishing the content, form, and detailed specifications of the conditions for the state final examination

Article 1

Introductory Provision

1. This measure implements Article 27, Paragraph 10 of the Study and Examination Regulations of the University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice.

Article 2

Modification of the content, form, and detailed specifications of the conditions for the state final examination

1. The state final examination is held before an examination committee appointed by the Dean of the Faculty of Agriculture and Technology of the University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice (FAT USB) in accordance with Section 53 of Act No. 111/1998 Coll., on Higher Education Institutions.
2. Students are required to register for the state final examination within the deadline set by the academic year schedule and according to the instructions of the FAT USB.
3. The thesis supervisor shall acquaint the student with the supervisor's review and the opponent's review no later than five days before the date of the state final examination. The student is obliged to familiarize themselves with these reviews within the specified period and prepare written responses to the comments and questions contained in the supervisor's and opponent's reviews. The student shall submit this material to the examination committee on the day of the state final examination.
4. The state final examination consists of the defence of the thesis and an oral examination in subjects specified for the given study programme (or study field). The thesis defence and each subject of the state final examination are assessed separately.
5. The final grade for the thesis defence is determined based on:
 - on the assessment of the quality of the thesis by the examination committee,
 - on the evaluation by the thesis supervisor and the reviewer, and
 - on the course of the thesis defence.
6. The oral examinations in individual subjects of the state final examination are evaluated by the examination committee based on the proposal of the examiner for the given subject.
7. The final evaluation of each part of the state final examination is decided by the chairperson of the committee.

Article 3

Resit of the State Final Examination

1. If the student receives a "fail" grade during the defence of the thesis, they may, in accordance with the Study and Examination Regulations of the University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice, revise the thesis once and resubmit it for defence.
2. If the student receives a "fail" grade in any subject of the state final examination, they must retake the oral examination only in that specific subject.
3. The state final examination may be retaken no earlier than three months after the unsuccessful attempt.
