

Types of tasks in the Use of English part:

(tests grammar, vocabulary and ability to use the language in general situations)

Type 1 – students read a conversation and must fill in the correct word in the blank.

Select a word or phrase to complete each conversation.

Has Sam said anything about when I should pick him up from the airport?

Yes. He said  you at the airport at five o'clock.

he met

he meets

he's met

he'd meet

Type 2 - students read a conversation. They have to choose the closest meaning from the options offered.

Type 3 – a short text with blanks that students must fill with just one matching word.

Complete the text. Write ONE word in each space.

Le Corbusier, the father of minimalist architecture

Charles-Édouard Jeanneret, more commonly known as Le Corbusier, was a Swiss designer, artist, author, city planner, and most notably a creator of  is now known as 'modern architecture'. He is without a doubt one of the most creative and controversial architects of the 20th century. In his architecture, he pioneered the use of steel and reinforced concrete as an aesthetic, the influence of  can still be seen.

Le Corbusier began his career as a talented watchmaker, but before long he had  his talents to bear on the world of architecture.  many architects of his generation, Le Corbusier also had little in the way of architectural training. But what he did have was a vision of how modern industrial materials could be used to make homes that were both functional and beautiful, a vision which stood in

Listening: cca. 2-thirds of the time provided for the whole test

Students hear short dialogues and choose the correct answer to the question.

Listen and choose the correct answer.

A man and a woman are discussing legal documents.

0 of 2 play(s)

What do they think about them?

They should be rewritten by people outside the legal profession.

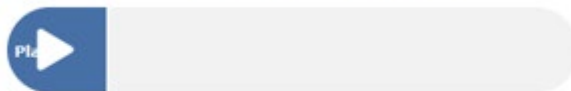

They are sometimes written in order to mislead people.

They are written in a way that some clients want.

They are written over a long period of time.

Listen and choose the correct answer.

A man and a woman are talking about a shop.

0 of 2 play(s)

What does the man say about the staff there?

They were extremely friendly.

They served him very quickly.

They suggested other things to buy.

They knew a lot about their products.

Students may listen to each task twice before they answer the question.

Each task has a time limit. Students thus demonstrate that they have genuine B2-level knowledge of English and can use it interactively.